- d) Provide appropriate pastoral care
- e) Protect pupil welfare
- f) Administer admissions waiting lists

- g) Assess the quality of our services
- h) Carry out research
- i) Comply with our legal and statutory obligations

Use of your personal data for marketing purposes

Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that may be of interest to you.

You can withdraw consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by contacting us (see 'Contact us' below).

Use of your personal data in automated decision making and profiling

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

The lawful basis for which we use this information

Our lawful bases for processing your personal data for the purposes listed in "Why we use this data" section above are as follows:

For the purposes of a) b) c) d) f) g) and h) from the section "Why we use this data" in accordance with the "public task" basis – we need to process personal data to fulfil our statutory function as a school as set out here:

- The Education Act 1996 requires that schools operate and that children in England and Wales aged five to 16 receive full-time education
- Coronavirus Act 2020 Provision of Remote Education (England) Temporary Continuity Direction ('the Direction') which requires schools to provide online learning for all its pupils during COVID19 Lockdowns.

For the purposes of b) d) e) and i) from the section "Why we use this data" in accordance with the "public task" basis – we need to process personal data to process data to fulfil our statutory function as a school as set out here:

- The Children Acts of 1989 and 2004
- Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Working Together to Safeguard Children

For the purposes of i) from the section "Why we use this data" in accordance with the "Legal Obligation" basis – we need to process personal data to meet our responsibilities under law as set out here:

- UKGDPR and Data Protection Act 2018

BDMAT

Birmingham Diocesan
Multi-Academy Trust

For the purposes of b) and c) from the section “Why we use this data” in accordance with the “Legitimate Interests” basis - where there is a minimal privacy impact, and we have a compelling reason including:

- where we let out school facilities, arrange or facilitate after-school or extra-curricular activities, or sporting events not part of taught sports in the school.
- Where we engage with third parties to provide resources for pupil learning
- Where we engage with third parties to provide catering for pupils (school meals)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Our basis for using special category data

For ‘special category’ data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one of the following conditions for processing as set out in UK data protection law:

- We have obtained your explicit consent to use your personal data in a certain way
- We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law.
- We need to protect an individual’s vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else’s life), in situations where you’re physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to process it for health or social care purposes, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health or social work professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest

For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in UK data protection law. Conditions include:

- We have obtained your consent to use it in a specific way
- We need to protect an individual’s vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else’s life), in situations where you’re physically or legally incapable of giving consent

- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for, or in connection with, legal proceedings, to obtain legal advice, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal rights
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation

Collecting this data

Whilst the majority of information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so what the possible consequences are of not complying) or whether you have a choice.

Most of the data we hold about you will come from you, but we may also hold data about you from:

- Local Authorities
- Government departments or agencies
- Your children
- Previous schools or nurseries
- Other professionals
- Police forces, courts, tribunals

How we store this data

We keep personal information about you while your child is attending one of our schools. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at one of our schools if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations.

We use the IRMS Information Management Toolkit for schools as our retention schedule which sets out how long we keep information about parents and carers and a copy is available via the link above.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent personal information being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer need it.

Who we share data with.

We do not share information about you with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and complies with UK data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

Where we transfer your personal data to a third-party country or territory, we will do so in accordance with UK data protection law.

Your Rights

How to access to personal information that we hold about you – Subject Access Request (SAR)

You have a right to make a “subject access request” to gain access to personal information that we hold about you.

BDMAT
Birmingham Diocesan
Multi-Academy Trust

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will (subject to any exemptions that apply):

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

Subject access requests can be made verbally. To ensure that your verbal request is fully understood the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) on their website say the following:

Yes. You can make a subject access request verbally, but we recommend you put it in writing if possible because this gives you a record of your request.

If you are making a verbal request, try to:

- use straightforward, polite language;
- focus the conversation on your subject access request;
- discuss the reason for your request, if this is appropriate – work with them to identify the type of information you need and where it can be found;
- ask them to make written notes – especially if you are asking for very specific information; and
- check their understanding – ask them to briefly summarise your request and inform them if anything is incorrect or missing before finishing the conversation.

However, even if you make your request verbally, we recommend you follow it up in writing (eg by letter, email or using a standard form).

So to avoid confusion we ask you when making a subject access request, you do so by contacting our Data Protection Officer, Chris Manning, in writing to Birmingham Diocesan Multi-Academy Trust, 1 Colmore Row, Birmingham, B3 2BJ or by email to dpo@bdiocesanmat.org.uk

However, our Head of School Support, , Michele Fullwood has day to day responsibility for data protection issues and can be contacted by email; m.fullwood@bdiocesanmatschools.com

Your other rights regarding your data.
